

TWO MAJOR PRIZES

- £1000, sponsored by Pavilion Books, an imprint of Anova Books and publishers of Oz Clarke and Michael Broadbent, to enable the winner to travel to a wine region of his or her choice to gain first-hand experience and to develop a book or article based on that experience.

- Wine Australia sponsor a 14-day, expenses-paid trip to the wine regions of Australia. The trip will include a tour of the key wine regions, opportunities to meet the growers and one-on-one tastings with leading producers. The winner will also get the chance to write articles about the trip for the Wine Australia website. (Terms and conditions apply.)

COONAWARRA

YOUNG WINE WRITER AWARD 2010

Can you write a winning wine article...

and win £1000 plus an expenses-paid, two-week trip to the wine regions of Australia?

ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS WRITE 1500 WORDS ABOUT ANY ASPECT OF WINE

The Circle of Wine Writers is pleased to offer this annual award, to help develop promising young wine writers. The award is open to anyone aged 30 or under by the end of 2010 who is based in the UK. Applicants should not yet have had a wine book published nor yet be an established wine columnist or regular contributor to a magazine. We are looking for wine-writing potential and commitment to popular consumer wine-writing rather than extensive knowledge or experience.

Deadline for applications -- 30 September 2010
